

PATERSON L. ENCABO

Professorial Chair

Polytechnic University of the Philippines

1. Academic Leadership

- Professorial Lecturer at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines Graduate School since 1993, teaching research, business administration, and management engineering subjects.
- Holder of Professorial Chair at PUP, recognized for outstanding teaching and academic leadership.
- Faculty member at Philippine Women's University (1981–2005), delivering MBA and business courses.
- Provides mentorship in thesis and dissertation writing, curriculum development, and graduate-level instruction.

2. Specialized Expertise

- Doctor of Business Administration, Polytechnic University of the Philippines.
- Master in Business Administration, Philippine Women's University.
- Master in Industrial Engineering, University of the Philippines (academic requirements completed).
- Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering, University of Santo Tomas.
- Expertise in business administration, industrial engineering, chemical engineering, and strategic management.

3. International Representation

- Attended international conferences and trainings including Wessex Institute Conference on Environment (Spain), Sovereign Investor Institute Roundtable (Singapore), World Conference on Disaster Management (Canada), IDEACTION Facilities Management (Australia), and Coin Management Training Program (United Kingdom).
- Active member of international organizations such as Ascendens Asia International Researchers Club, World Association for Online Education, and The International Ecotourism Society.
- Represents Philippine academia and government in global forums on sustainability, governance, and management.

4. Research Productivity

- Published and presented papers on solar adoption, governance perceptions, artificial intelligence in supply chains, and teaching methodologies.
- Authored Influence of Perceived Benefits on Rooftop Solar Adoption: An Embedded Mixed-Method Study (Best Research Paper, Best Presenter).
- Published Artificial Intelligence in Supply Chain: Status and Constraints – The Philippine Experience (Best Research Paper).

- Contributed to The Mediating Effect of Training Infrastructure on Teaching Methodology and Effective Implementation (Journal of Business and Economics).
- Research outputs indexed in international journals including the American Institute of Physics.

5. Editorial & Peer Review Experience

- Serves as adviser and panelist for graduate thesis and dissertation defenses at PUP.
- Provides peer review and evaluation of academic research in business administration and management engineering.
- Engages in editorial initiatives within academic and professional organizations, ensuring research quality and ethical compliance.

6. Engagement in Policy & Practice

- Former Managing Director of the Management Services Sub-sector, Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (1979–2017), overseeing procurement, facilities management, security, and administrative services.
- Spearheaded strategic programs including the BSP Master Plan for Facilities and Engineering Management, Procurement Management Plan, and Transport Operations Study.
- Promotes efficient resource use, environmental concern, inclusive growth, and mentoring as part of personal social responsibility.
- Training consultant for SMARTIFY (i-Tech Web), delivering programs on leadership, creativity, critical thinking, and workplace effectiveness.