

MELVIN MACUHA

Assistant Professor V

St. Paul University Manila

1. Academic Leadership

- Program Chairperson, Psychology Program at St. Paul University Manila (2022–present).
- Former Program Head, BS Psychology at AMA Colleges Makati (2015–2017).
- Provides managerial oversight, faculty evaluation, and curriculum alignment.

2. Specialized Expertise

- Licensed Professional / Registered Psychologist (PRC, 2017).
- Specialization in Clinical Psychology (MS, De La Salle University; PhD student, Ateneo de Manila University).
- Expertise in psychological testing, psychotherapy (individual, group, play), and statistical analysis.
- Focus areas: neuropsychology, clinical psychology, counseling, and research ethics.

3. International Representation

- Active participant in international conventions (e.g., EdukCircle International Conventions, International Union of Psychological Science’s “Get Publishing”).
- Engages with global scholarly networks through seminars and workshops.

4. Research Productivity

- Adviser and panel member for undergraduate and graduate thesis defenses.
- Consulting Statistician at Asian Institute of Maritime Studies (2021–present).
- Conducted and participated in numerous research-focused seminars (structural equation modeling, moderation/mediation analysis, qualitative/quantitative methods).
- Knowledgeable in research writing across qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods.

5. Editorial & Peer Review Experience

- Former Psychology & Liberal Arts Representative, Research Ethics Committee (2022–2023).
- Served as full-time secretary and reviewer for ethics evaluation of research studies.
- Panel member for thesis defenses at undergraduate and graduate levels.

6. Engagement in Policy & Practice

- Speaker/resource person in mental health webinars and conventions (e.g., stress management, suicide prevention, pandemic fatigue).
- Conducted training sessions on pedagogy, research methods, and psychological assessment.
- Applied expertise in Outcome-Based Education (OBE) and curriculum development.
- Involved in applied research and practice bridging psychology with education and student welfare.