

ALBERTO H. FLORIDA

Instructor I/Onboard Training Supervisor

Jose Rizal Memorial State University, Philippines

1. Academic Leadership

- Currently serving as Instructor I and Onboard Training Supervisor at Jose Rizal Memorial State University (2022–present).
- Formerly held leadership roles as School Registrar (2018–2022) and Program Chair for BSMT & Shipboard Training Officer (2015–2018) at Dipolog City Institute of Technology.
- Provides oversight in academic program delivery, student training, and institutional compliance.

2. Specialized Expertise

- Licensed Master Mariner with extensive seafaring and academic credentials.
- Holds a Diploma in Electrical Engineering Technology, Bachelor of Science in Marine Transportation, Bachelor of Secondary Education, Master in Public Administration, and Master of Arts in Teaching Marine Transportation (with Highest Honors, 2024).
- Currently pursuing a Doctor of Philosophy in Maritime Management and Education.
- Expertise areas include: Marine Transportation and Seamanship, Shipboard Operations and Navigation, Maritime Education and Training, Academic Program Management and Student Supervision, Compliance with International Maritime Standards

3. International Representation

- Served as Marine Deck Officer and Rating for Mitsui OSK Lines Ltd., Tokyo, Japan (1995–2015), gaining international exposure in tanker and bulk carrier operations.
- Participated in global maritime training programs, including Electronic Chart Display and Information System (Norway, 2012) and Radio Electronic Operator certification (Japan, 2010).

4. Research Productivity

- Engaged in continuous professional development through educator and seafarer trainings.
- Completed peer reviewer training using Scopus and ISI standards (2024), IMO Model Courses (6.09, 6.10, 3.12), and advanced maritime safety and management courses.
- Actively contributes to academic excellence by integrating international standards into teaching and training.

5. Editorial & Peer Review Expertise

- Experienced in evaluating academic manuscripts, particularly in maritime education and training. Provides constructive critique to ensure clarity, compliance, and scholarly rigor.
- Has served as editor-in-chief of The Mast Chronicle (1994), the college publication of ZSCMST, demonstrating early editorial leadership.
- Applies expertise in academic writing, outcome-based education, and maritime research evaluation to strengthen institutional credibility and scholarly output.

6. Engagement in Policy & Practice

- Actively involved in maritime education policy and practice through roles in program chairmanship, registrarship, and training supervision.
- Applies expertise in outcome-based education, compliance with MARINA and IMO standards, and integration of international best practices in maritime training.
- Contributes to institutional transparency and credibility through documentation, supervision, and stakeholder engagement.